When our life on earth is ended,
we will feel God's warm embrace;
there will be no pain or sorrow in that far,
far better place.

Life Reflections
For
Mrs. Jewellyne Davis Hill

On Wednesday, November 29, 2023, God, in His infinite wisdom, called Jewellyne Davis Hill home to eternal rest. She was born February 15, 1945, in Cartersville, Georgia to the late John Willie Davis and Edna Jackson Davis.

Jewell, as she was affectionately known, was educated at Summer Hill High School in Cartersville, Georgia, and graduated with the Class of 1963. After High School, she entered the workforce and was employed at Union Carbide until her retirement.

She met and married the late Jack Christopher Hill, whom she loved dearly and was a faithful member of Mt. Zion Missionary Baptist Church where she served on the Mother Board, sang with the E.H. Mitchell Choir, and attended Sunday School.

Jewell appreciated the simple things in life. Gardening, solving crossword puzzles, and chatting with family and friends brought her much enjoyment.

She was preceded in death by her son, Kelly Eugene Davis; parents, John W. and Edna Davis; husband, Jack C. Hill; sisters, Lois Johnson, Elaine Henderson, Mabel Holmes, and Marian Woodard.
