God Saw You Getting Tired

*God saw you getting tired
and a cure was not to be
So he put his arms around you and whispered "Come With Me."
With tearful eyes I watched you,
slowly fade away,
Although I loved you dearly,
I would not make you stay.
A golden heart stopped beating,
hard working hands at rest.
God broke my heart to prove to me,
He only takes the best.*

Reflections of

Mrs. Curlee Sarah Womble Holmes

"The chastisement of our peace was upon Him; and with His stripes we are healed." Isaiah 53:5

Mrs. Curlee Sarah Womble Holmes transitioned to her Heavenly home Saturday, December 2, 2023. She was born January 19, 1940. She was preceded in death by her husband, J. C. Holmes, parents, Rev. Robert Womble, Sr. and Julia Mae Manning Womble Stalling, brothers, Nate Womble, Thomas Womble, Robert Womble, Jr., Rev. Dr. Willie J. Womble, George Ralph Stalling, sisters, Louise Womble, Joyce Jones, and her pastor whom she loved dearly, Prophet John E. Thomas.

Curlee affectionally called "Curly" by her family and friends, attended Hill High School before moving to Florida. During her younger years she was employed at the Shrimp Dock in Marathon Florida. Curly found enjoyment in decorating, cleaning, helping others, browsing thrift stores and volunteering. She was a very private person and enjoyed the simple things of life.

Loving and unforgettable memories will remain in the hearts and minds of her son, Donnie Maurice Womble of Salt Lake City, Utah; five grandchildren, Maurice Womble, II, Martin K. Womble, Michael Rapheal Womble, Carissa Womble, Denise Dunlap; seven great grandchildren, fifteen great great grandchildren; sisters, Bertha Mae Buchanan of Nashville, TN, Elizabeth Nelson of Chattanooga, TN., Nylia Swint, Barbara Ann Brown of LaFayette, GA, Kathleen Bailey of Rossville, GA, and Geneva Faye Davis of Chattanooga; brother, Nathaniel (Ruby) Womble of Atlanta; special niece and caregiver Mrs. Myra Harris; a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, other relatives, and friends.
