*When I come to the end of the road,
And the sun has set for me,
I want no rites in a gloom filled room
Why cry for a soul set free?
Miss me a little – but not for long.
And not with your head bowed low.
Remember the love that once we shared.
Miss me, but let me go.
For this is a journey we must all take,
And each must go alone.
It's all part of the master plan,
A step on the road to home.
When you are lonely and sick at heart,
Go to the friends we know,
Laugh at all the things we used to do.
Miss me, but let me go.*

Mr. Curtis Henry Thrash
"Mayfield"

We have gathered today to celebrate the life of Mr. Curtis "Mayfield" Henry Thrash who was born June 20, 1945, in Greenville, Mississippi to the late Pauline Thrash. He and his family moved to Chicago where he received his early childhood education. Curtis furthered his education at Olive Harve College of Chicago. He later relocated to Georgia and worked in various manufacturing jobs. "Mayfield" loved his family, and the highlight of his day was spending time with his sister Barbara. There are very few "Motown" songs that "Mayfield" didn't know the words too. When he wasn't listening to "Motown" songs, he was watching his favorite Westerns and Action Movies. "Mayfield" a man who loved his family and friends, he loved the sounds of "Motown" and watching westerns departed his early life Thursday, December 28, 2023. He was preceded by his mother and other relatives.

"Mayfield" is survived by sons, Curtis and Darnell Wells of Chicago, IL; grandchildren, Curtis D. Wells, Diane D. Wells, and Malia A. Wells; a sister, Barbara Finch of Rossville, GA; nieces, Ontaria Riddick, and Lynton (Alphonso) Ellis; nephews, Dino Finch, Lorne Finch and Delano (Antionette) Finch; and a host of other relatives and friends.
