My Hero

*You held my hand when I was small
You caught me when I fell
You are the hero of my childhood
And my later years as well
And every time I think of you
My heart still fills with pride
Though I will always miss you Dad
I know you're by my side
In laughter and in sorrow
In sunshine and in rain
I know you're watching over me
Until we meet again.*

Loving Reflections for Mr. Harry Truman Brown

Sunrise:
July 6, 1948

Sunset:
January 31, 2024

Our hearts were saddened on Wednesday, January 31, 2024 as our beloved Harry Truman Brown departed this earthly life.

Mr. Harry Truman Brown was born July 6, 1948 to the late Charlie Brown, Sr. and Nellie B. Brown. He was preceded by his wife Betty Taylor Brown, four brothers, Charlie Brown, Jr., Dennis Brown, Johnny Brown, Cleotis Brown, and one sister, Geneva Smith.

He graduated from Sumter County Training School in Epes, Alabama. He retired from Rossville Paving Company. He was a United States Army Veteran and was Honorably Discharged.

Harry married the late Betty Taylor Brown and two children were born to this union. He was a loving father and shared that love with others. In his spare time he enjoyed fishing, shooting his BB gun, dancing, watching football and spending time with family and friends.

Survivors are his loving and devoted children, daughter, Anisha Brown of Chatsworth, Georgia; son, Aaron (Michelle) Brown of Chattanooga, Tennessee; six grandchildren, one great grandchild; three sisters-in-law, Grace Brown, Alice Faye Brown, Christine Taylor Bell; a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, other relatives, and friends.
