In Appreciation/Acknowledgments

The entire family of Deacon Hiram Hawkins wish to thank and appreciate all of you for your kind expressions of sympathy, your cards, your many kind and comforting words throughout his declining health and demise. To the one who said it's not the family you were born to, it's the one that you choose. Thank you, Prissy for looking after our boys. Thank you to my nieces Sherry and Jackie for having my back when I needed a break.

Special appreciation to the entire staff of nurses, CNA's, housekeeping and cafeteria staff at the Harborview Nursing Facility. Also the Amtran and Verida Transportation System who faithfully transported him to Fresenius Kidney Care for dialysis treatment the past few years. A special appreciation and thanks to Traditions Hospice Care who stepped in when we needed them the most.

Life Story For
Deacon Hiram Hawkins

Genesis
August 2, 1938

Exodus
June 25, 2024

Deacon Hiram Hawkins was born August 2, 1938 to Willie and Gertrude Hawkins in the Curryville community of Gordon County. He accepted Christ and United with the Friendship Baptist Church Calhoun Georgia.

He attended and graduated from Stephens High School. Hiram was preceded in death by his son Neal Hawkins, two sisters, Maybelle Hawkins Curtis Harris, Odell Hawkins Mann, four brothers Walter Hawkins, Albert Hawkins, Henry Hawkins, and Lorenzo Hawkins.

Hiram Retired from Bowater Land Company. He later went to work for Gordon County Transportation System. He was ordained as a Deacon at the Friendship Baptist Church. He served under several pastors, the last being Pastor James Washington, Jr. where he served as Chairman of the Deacon Board. Hiram loved his church and enjoyed his church work.

Hiram leaves to mourn his passing his lovely wife of twenty-seven years, Linda Farmer Hawkins; daughter, Kjawanna Johnson Cabrera; son, Carlos R. Morris; grandchildren, great grandchildren; sisters-in-law; brothers-in-law; nieces, nephews, cousins, other relatives, friends, and church family.
