Acknowledgement

Your love, devotion, and friendship shown in countless ways during the homegoing of our loved one helped to ease our pain and sorrow. We acknowledge with deep gratitude the generous expressions of sympathy, and we sincerely thank each of you for caring. A special thank you to the staff at Standifer Place in Chattanooga, Tennessee.

~The Family of Mrs. Susan Rochelle Macon Pender ~

Life Reflections
of

Mrs. Susan Rochelle Macon Pender

From Labor:
February 10, 1956

To Reward:
June 30, 2024

Susan Rochelle Macon Pender, born on February 10, 1956, to the late Pharris Moore, Sr., and Janie Sue Macon Moore, graced our lives with her warmth and kindness. She was preceded in death by her husband, Louie Pender, Jr., her sister, Laura Macon Love, and her grandmother, Lillie Mae Wills.

Susan, a proud alumna of Emery Street School and Dalton High School (Class of 1974), lived a life rich in love and connection. Her days were adorned with simple joys: spending time with family and friends, listening to Frankie Beverly and Maze, solving crossword puzzles, and indulging in soap operas and “Wheel of Fortune.” She was a vibrant member of the Red Hat Society and Community Fellowship Church.

Susan dedicated 33 years of her life to Shaw Industries WD plant before retiring. Her love extended to her entire family, her work family, her church family, and most recently, her Standifer Place family in Chattanooga, Tennessee. Her daughter and grandchildren held a special place in her heart. Despite any challenges, Susan never complained. Her infectious smile could light up a room, and her laughter was truly contagious. She was the heart and soul of our family, and her absence is deeply felt. Susan leaves behind cherished memories and a legacy of love.

She will be dearly missed by her daughter, Valerie (Kelly, Sr.) Pender Storey; granddaughter, Ciera (Cliff) Phillips; two great-grandchildren, Cohen and Olivia Phillips; sisters, Virginia Young and Marlene (David) Webster; brothers, Frank Hart, Jr., and Pharris Moore, Jr.; brothers-in-law, Richard Love, J. C. Ramsey, Ronald (Wanda) Pender, Fredrick Sims, and Sandy (Delores) Harris; sister-in-law, Gwendolyn Allen; two aunts, Shirley Jones and Betty Macon; nieces, nephews; special cousin, Iva Lee Macon; and a host of loving cousins, relatives, friends, and church family.
