With that I heard a loud voice from the throne say:
“Look! The tent of God is with mankind, and he will reside with them, and they will be his people. And God himself will be with them. And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away.”

Acknowledgements

*Perhaps you sent a lovely card, or sat quietly in a chair.
 Perhaps you sent those beautiful flowers, that we saw sitting there. Perhaps you spoke the kindest words, as any friend could say. Perhaps you were not there at all, just thought of us that day. Whatever you did to console our hearts we thank you so much for whatever the part.*

Life Reflections

For

Mr. Walter Watson

Mr. Walter Watson, a resident of Dalton, Georgia, passed away on Wednesday, July 3, 2024. Born on April 21, 1933, he was the son of the late Ed Watson and Fannie Mae Dwight Washington.

His educational journey began at Emery Street School. Later in life, he became a member of the Kingdom Hall of Jehovah's Witnesses, having been raised in Hopewell Baptist Church. Mr. Watson also served in the United States Army from 1952 to 1953, receiving an Honorable Discharge. His work history included 15 years at E & B Carpets and over 25 years at Dorsett Carpets, where he retired.

Outside of work, he enjoyed various activities such as fishing, horseshoes, checkers, and dominos. Most importantly, he cherished spending time with his family. Mr. Watson was preceded in death by his wife of 64 years, Rosella Tibbs Watson; sisters, Annie Ruth Quinn and Nettie Dwight; brothers, Eugene Watson and Woodrow Blalock; brothers-in-law, John B. Quinn, Jim Tibbs, Billy Tibbs, and James Dwight; sisters-in-law, Clemie Watson, Ruby Tibbs, and Carrie Taylor; and sons-in-law, Geof Miller and Leander Bonds.

He is survived by his loving children, Shirley Bonds, Micheal (Linda) Tibbs, Sally Miller, Danny Watson; five grandchildren, Tiffany (Chris) Brinson, Jennifer O'Neal, Rodney Bonds, Chris Bonds, and Fallon Watson; seven great grandchildren; sisters, Alene Watson and Adele Tibbs; brothers-in-law, J. C. Ramsey and James Ramsey; sisters-in-laws, Patsy Martin and Patricia Hardson; devoted friend, Richard Roach; a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, other relatives, and friends.
