

His Journey's Just Begun

Don't think of him as gone away,
his journey's just begun,
life holds so many facets
this earth is only one.

Just think of him as resting from the sorrows and the tears in a place of warmth and comfort where there are no days and years.

Think how he must be wishing that we could know today
how nothing but our sadness can really pass away.

And think of him as living in the hearts of those he touched for nothing loved is ever lost and he was loved so much.

Mr. Robert Brantely Henderson, Jr., a resident of LaFayette, Georgia, and formerly of Pontiac, Michigan, passed away on Sunday, July 7, 2024. Born on May 30, 1965, he was the son of the late Robert Brantely Henderson, Sr., and Patricia Ann Brembery Brooks. He is preceded in death by his maternal grandparents, Niniva Jackson and O. V. Moss, and his special aunt, Kathleen Brembery.

Robert served honorably in the United States Army from 1984 to 1987. His collegiate journey began at Oakland Community College, where he excelled as a cross-country team runner, earning qualifications for National Championships and recognition in the USA Today Newspaper. Later, he continued his education and track career at Alabama A&M University, graduating with a Bachelor of Science Degree in Social Work and a Minor in Criminal Justice. It was during this time that he met the love of his life and started his family.

Robert formerly worked as a Case Manager for the Department of Family and Children Services and Adult Protective Services. He was most recently employed by Cloud Springs Elementary School as a teacher. He attended the Kingdom Hall of Jehovah’s Witnesses. Outside of work, he enjoyed fishing, traveling, and passionately supported the University of Michigan and the Detroit Pistons.

Those left to cherish his memory are his loving wife, Wanda Faye Sligh; children, Aviante, Keontae, Jenee, Kearia, Robin, Patrick, and Jaden; grandchildren, Maliyah, Devin, and Ivory; mother, Patricia Ann Brembery Brooks; Aunt, Hattie Jeanette Bremberry; brothers-in-law and sisters-in-laws, Ronald (Gwendolyn) Acklin, Aundra Acklin, Cynthia (Farentino) Payne, Sonya Bynum, and Melvin Brown, Jr.; nieces, nephews, cousins, other relatives, and friends.
