IT'S NOT THE END OF THE TRAIL

It is not the end of the trail for me.
I've Just traveled on, you see
Up ahead where greener pastures grow
And cool water streams dance as they flow.

Flowers bloom of every sort and kind.
Colors more vivid than any I left behind
Family and Friends, I haven't seen in years
Hugs and Handshakes and no more tears

They've welcomed me home here today.
A place of Peace For me to Stay,
They Say it's My Home for Eternity;
No, it's Not the End of the Trail for me.

Mr. Gerone Ladelle Evans (Dell) was born on May 13, 1966, in Summerville, Georgia, to Everett Evans and the late Carolyn Printup. On November 27, 2024, he departed from this earthly life to join his heavenly home.

Dell was educated in the Chattooga County School System and graduated from Chattooga High School in 1985. He was employed by Roper Manufacturing. Known in the community as the “horseshoe man,” Dell’s love for horses earned him many relationships and bonds with other horse enthusiasts. His remarkable animal IQ and eagerness to share his knowledge were well-known.

Dell enjoyed riding horses, spending time with his family, and participating in trail rides. He had a special love for his horse, Trigger, and his dog, Roscoe. Dell was cherished by many and will be deeply missed.

He is preceded in death by his mother; his brother, Patrick Evans; his grandparents, Henley and Beatrice Hull, and John L. and Lelia Evans; and his uncles, Alvin Evans and Lenton “O Neal” Evans.

Dell leaves behind cherished memories with his father, Everett Evans of Lyerly, Georgia; his four children, Gerone Marquel Evans, Perez Shropshire, Ayanna Young, and Kayanne Lee, all of Rome, Georgia; and his sister, Nevaeh Printup of Kingston, Georgia. His grandchildren, Karma Young, Xyla Young, Malia Young, King Young, Saniya Young, Ella Young, Zyir Shropshire, Kayden Harris and Kayson Lee all of Rome, Georgia; nephew, Patrick LeBron Evans, Jr. of Lyerly, Georgia; niece, Payton Davis of Columbia, South Carolina; great-nephew, Messiah Evans; and great-niece, Amiyah Evans; step-brothers Tracy Ayers of Columbus, Ohio; Jaquantas Printup of Kingston, Georgia; Darrell (Stacey) Wise of Rome, Georgia; Corey (Jennie) Wiggins of Cartersville, Georgia; and Mark Williams of Kingston, Georgia; step-sisters Linda (Reggie) Burks, Hometta Printup, Vanity Printup, Raven Printup, and Jamila Printup, all of Cartersville, Georgia; fondly remembered by his aunts, Dorothy-Ann Evans, Mary (Mose) Adams both of Lyerly, Georgia; and Irma Jean (Calvin) Starks of St. Louis, Missouri; uncles, George (Rosa Lee) Evans and Arthell Evans, both of Lyerly, Georgia, and Michael (Joyce) Hull of Rome, Georgia; and great-aunt Betty Saunders of Aberdeen, Maryland. He is also survived by many cousins, friends, and his church family.
