Mr. Jimmy Turner

Mr. Jimmy Turner, 70, of Calhoun, Georgia, peacefully departed this earthly life at his home, surrounded by his wife and family on the evening of Tuesday, December 17, 2024, transitioning into the presence of God.

Born on August 15, 1954, Jimmy was the youngest of 15 children born to Sam and Lucy Mae Turner. He was educated in the Stephens School System and affiliated with Kingdom Church International under the leadership of Apostle Rondie and First Lady Jennifer Goode.

Jimmy was preceded in death by his parents, Sam and Lucy Mae Turner; his daughter, Miss Shea Chandler; and his siblings, Mrs. Edna Mae Rodgers, Mrs. Ann D. Boatwright, Mrs. Willie B. Smith, Mrs. Sylvia Curtis, Miss Christine and Bobbie Sue Turner, Misterys James, Willie C., Eugene, Paul, and Troy Turner.

Jimmy cherished family phone conversations and visits. He was a carpet installer for over 30 years and had a passion for improvements. He greatly valued his work at Prater Ford, not only for the tasks he performed at the dealership but also for the relationships he built with the Prater Ford Family.

Cherishing his memories are his beloved wife of 28 years, Mrs. Jessie Turner; daughters Erika Bridges, Tina (Anthony) Gracie, and Tia Turner; sons William Cannon and Tarell Turner; sisters, Wylene Turner, Margaret Martin, and Betty Samples; sisters-in-law Mrs. Pauline Turner and Mrs. Sylvia (Ron) Pritchett; ten grandchildren; four great-grandchildren; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and special friends.
