

His Journey's Just Begun

By Ellen Brenneman

Don't think of him as gone away
his journey's just begun,
life holds so many facets
this earth is only one.
Just think of him as resting from the sorrows and the tears in a place of warmth and comfort where there are no days and years.
Think how he must be wishing that we could know today
how nothing but our sadness
can really pass away.
And think of him as living in the hearts of those he touched... for nothing loved is ever lost

Mr. Irvin "Terrance" Cooper

We are here to honor the life of Mr. Irvin "Terrance" Cooper, who departed this earthly life on Friday, January 17, 2025. Terrance, as he was lovingly known, was born on Wednesday, October 7, 1959, to the late Julian "Buddy" Cooper and Ollie Mae Kenion Cooper. He grew up in a loving home where his parents instilled in him a strong faith in God and the importance of education.

Terrance was a man of few words, but when he spoke, everyone listened. After high school, he served his country as a member of the United States Marine Corps. Upon returning home with an Honorable Discharge, he worked various jobs and found joy in detailing cars for the community alongside his brother Lanny.

Known for his neat appearance and well-groomed demeanor, Terrance was a fixture in Dalton and had many friends. He loved his family deeply, had a strong faith in God, and was known for his remarkable stamina, often walking miles without showing any signs of fatigue. Mr. Irvin "Terrance" Cooper was preceded in death by his parents, his brother Lanny Cooper, his sister Anita Gail Turman, and two nephews, Ernie Oliver and Julian Maurice "Snook" Cooper.

Memories of "Terrance's" life are now treasures in the hearts of his loving and devoted children, LaTerra (Dijon) Roberson, Lindsey Taylor, and Dontate (Nidia) Washington; six grandchildren, Zykiria, Elijah, Amayah, Braxton, Mya, and Dontate Jr.; siblings, Bernard (Cheryl) Betton, Renard (Cynthia) Cooper, Derrick Cooper, and Cathy (Phillip) McPherson; sister-in-law, Eunice Cooper; as well as numerous nieces, nephews, cousins, other relatives, and friends. He also leaves behind his special friend, Shirley Washington.
