

The Love we shared was as good as GOLD

Share Our Memories

Although, I am gone
Speak of me as you have always done.
Remember the good times, laughter, and fun.
Think of the fishing and the fun we had as children
Remember the rides to your sporting events
Think of me and the talks we shared
I loved sewing and cooking for you
And all the times we sat cheering for my teams
Remember the life lessons and joy you brought me
I'm peaceful now, put your mind at ease.
Know the memories we've shared are yours to keep.
My last days may have been a test,
But remember me when I was at my best.
I know things are not the same,
But continue to call my name.
Let your sorrow last for just a while.
Comfort each other and try to smile.
For you all filled my life with love and joy,
Live on now, my family
make me proud of what you have or will become.

The Life Story of Mrs. Maxine Passley Hill

Today, we paused to say farewell to Mrs. Maxine Passley Hill, who transitioned from this walk of life on Sunday, January 19, 2025. Maxine began her earthly journey on Saturday, May 5, 1951, to the late Eddie Matthew Passley, Sr. and Vera Simpson Passley. She grew up in Calhoun, GA, in a large and loving family. As a young girl, Maxine enjoyed spending time with her mother and learning to do various chores around the house. She loved fishing and spending time with her younger siblings. Maxine would take them to their practices and other after school activities. Her parents took their children to church and encouraged them to reach for the stars. Maxine was a member of Pine Grove Baptist Church and a member of the 1969 graduating class of Redbud High School in Calhoun, GA.

Maxine moved to Dalton, GA, where she raised her family. She enjoyed sewing and making clothes for her loved ones. Spending time with her family was very important; as well as, the wonderful meals she prepared for them. The Braves and Falcons were her favorite teams in GA, but she also loved Michael Jordan and the Chicago Bulls. When it came to football, her favorite team was the Pittsburgh Steelers. Maxine was a retiree of Collins and Aikman Mill, a successful seamstress, an avid sports fan, a loving mother, and a friend to many. She departed her earthly life on Sunday, January 19, 2025. Maxine was preceded in death by her husband, Allen D. Hill, Sr.; her daughter, Veronica Hill; her sister, Georgia Ann Johnson; and her brother, Eddie Matthew Passley, Jr.

Those left to share the loving memories of Maxine are her devoted sons, Allen (Rakesha) Hill, Jr. and Shawn Weaver; daughters, Evette Tanner, Jennifer Tanner, and Sasha Weaver; grandchildren, Alexis Hill, Jordan Childs, Chris Childs, Ale'yshia Broome, Aleah Hill, Peyton Hill, Alijah Tanner, Omarion Tanner, Nevia Tanner, Me-ah Tanner, Raiden Hill, A'niyah Hill, Assad Tanner, Jacques Weaver, Kabryant Weaver, Aceston Weaver, and Jaylen Weaver; sisters, Peggy (LeVern) Jackson, Rita Passley, Carla (Barry) Lewis; brothers, Mark Passley, John (Rochelle) Passley, Luke Passley; sisters-in-law, Tiny (Brady) Hart, Annette (Marcus) Macon, Elaine Hill, Clarissa Love, and Joyce Burse; brothers-in-law, Arthur Hill, Robert Love, and Alford (Mary) Hill; a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, other relatives, friends, and her church family.
