~ Better Place ~

*She's in a better place right now
Than she's ever been before;
All pain is gone, she is now at rest;
Nothing troubles her anymore.*

*It's we who have the burden of sadness and our grief;
We have to cry, to mourn our loss
Before we get relief.*

*We know we'll connect with her
at the end of each life's road;
We'll see her cherished face again
When we release our earthly load.*

LIFE STORY

BORN INTO LIFE BORN INTO ETERNITY
OCTOBER 8, 1942 APRIL 13, 2025

After a long glorious morning of Sunday splendid praise and joyous fellowship with friends and family, Cynthia Ann Carson laid down to rest and woke up in God's glory! Cynthia was born to the late James Claude Knox and Cynthia Smith Richard on October 8, 1942. She gave her life to God at an early age. She was a good and faithful member of New Beginnings C.O.G.I.C.

Cynthia's early education was in Summerhill Bartow County school system. In 1958 Cynthia Smith and Robert Lee Carson's friendship and relationship established by God came forth and blossomed. They were united in holy matrimony on February 19, 1960 for a beautiful duration of sixty five years. To this union God blessed them with two lovely children, Cindy Arnetta Carson and Robin Carson.

As a young adult Cynthia enjoyed baking, sewing and reading to her grandchildren. Cynthia was preceded in death by her parents, James Claude Knox and Cynthia Smith Richard; daughter, Cindy Arnetta Carson; brothers, Essix Hank Richard, III and Jimmy Knox.

She leaves to cherish and to forever lift up her legacy, her husband Robert Lee Carson; daughter, Robin (Joseph) Thomas of Jacksonville, FL; granddaughters, Derricka, Jonnia and Kamaya; grandsons, Jay, R'hilhan, R'Kail, and Kamani; great grandchildren; Kyla and Jy'Cere; sisters-in-law, Betty and Ollie Nell; brother-in-law, Oscar Carson; special nieces, LaToya Stephens and Keely Hardy; special God daughters, Jocelyn Wells and Jeneh Perry; host nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

Cynthia was a blessed and highly favored woman of God, When she speaks, her words are wise, and she gives instructions with kindness. Proverbs 31:26 NLT
