Life Reflections for

Janice Shropshire Stamper

From Labor:
March 15, 1949

To Reward:
October 29, 2025

Mrs. Janice Shropshire Stamper of Chattanooga, Tennessee, formerly of LaFayette, Georgia entered eternal rest on Wednesday, October 29, 2025. Born on March 15, 1949, she was the daughter of the late Travis Shropshire and Naomi H. Dorris, and grandparents Roy and Clara Underwood Shropshire.

She was preceded in death by her husband, James Allen Stamper; her brother, Jarvis Shropshire; aunts, Bozie Mae Southern and Annie Laura Thrasher; uncles, Jesse, Robert Paul “R.P.”, Joseph, William, Travis, Bobby Joe, Melvin, and Ray Shropshire.

Mrs. Stamper was a graduate of Hill High School in LaFayette, Georgia, and dedicated many years of service to the Yarn Industry before retiring.

Her legacy lives on in the hearts of her children: Stacy (Elizabeth) Stamper of Fort Oglethorpe, Georgia, Reginald Stamper, and Felicia (Willie) Cox of Chattanooga, Tennessee. She was a treasured grandmother to Desmond (Joy) Suttle, Stacie (Elgin) Evans, Lyndon (Kita) Stamper, Jada Stamper, Wilson (Tiphani) Jackson, Brandon Hawkins, Passion Hawkins, and Diamond (Eric) Webb; and a joyful great-grandmother to fourteen great-grandchildren. She is also lovingly remembered by her sisters, Brenda McKinney, Linda Willis, and Kate Wynn; her brother, Travis (Terrasina) Shropshire; a host of nieces and nephews; her special cousin, Clara Dixon; and many other dear cousins, extended family members, and friends.
