"Are You There Momma?"

*All it takes is one picture, one memory, one song
Ever since you left us everything seems wrong
The sadness can hit me and knock me on the floor
They say it gets easier but it's hurting so much more
I still can hear your voice and I visualize your face
But all I want is to have you right back in your place*

*Can you hear me momma, in my dreams I call for you
And I try so hard to get to you but I don't know what to do
Can you see me momma, are you watching over me?
Is Heaven all they say it is, are you healthy and happy?*

*Your family is hurting, it's so hard since you've been gone
I'm crying so much now, but I once was very strong
Losing you has changed me, made me someone new
I know you want me happy so I'll try to be that for you
Please watch over us all, from your perch up in the sky
And every time I think of you I'll try hard not to cry*

*Can you hear me momma, calling out your name
I feel you all around me, but it'll never be the same
Can you see me momma, as you look down from your cloud?
I hope and pray with all my might that I still make you proud.*

A Loving Farewell for
Mother Hanora Scott Gregory

Mother Hanora Scott Gregory passed away Wednesday, November 12, 2025. She was born on March 1, 1932 to the late James Boss Scott and Ida Kemp Scott in Woodstock, Georgia. She was preceded in death by her husband, John “June Payne” Gregory; her children, Mary Ann Gregory and William Gregory; daughter -in-law, Sybil Gregory; son-in-law, William Arnold; and nephew, Samuel Hill. She was also preceded by eight cherished sisters—Edna Porch, Joyce Steele, Alice Broglen, Mildred Curtis, Eva Smith, Arletha (Lucy) Hill McDaniel, Ardell Morris, and Lucille Hill—and seven beloved brothers: James, Vernon, Daniel, Theodore, John D., Ivory, and Claude Scott.

Mother Gregory retired from Wellco Carpets in 1994, yet continued to serve others with grace and dedication. She worked for Web and Debbie Coe and Jane Weldon until just days before her passing, and also lovingly cared for the Stephens family for many years. She held a deep affection for her church, Friendship Baptist Church, and remained spiritually connected even when health challenges kept her from attending in person.

A pillar of strength and faith, Mother Gregory was a guiding light to all who knew her. She nurtured a loving and accomplished family, building a home grounded in perseverance, devotion, and unconditional love. Her tireless efforts provided for generations, and her legacy is reflected in the unity and warmth of her family. She was known for her generous spirit, wise counsel, and exceptional culinary gifts—her baking and cooking brought loved ones together in joy and fellowship. She found delight in simple pleasures, especially playing bingo and visiting the casino, and always carried herself with grace and good humor. She leaves behind a legacy of love, resilience, and unwavering family bonds that will continue to inspire all who were blessed to know her.

Precious memories will remain with her four daughters, Brenda Arnold, Glenda (Calvin) Cooley, Dianne Williams, Priscilla Gregory; eight sons, Johnny, Eddie (Diane), Steve, Michael, Randy, Anthony, Greg, Craig, Gregory; daughter-in-law, Lorrie Gregory; twenty-nine grandchildren; great grandchildren; nephews, Ezekiel McDaniel, Eddie Gregory, Joe Body, Tim Scott, Will Scott; nieces, Verdell Mims, Gloria Hodge, Tonya Morris, Mary Jane Garigan, Tracey Davis, Alberta Jones, Louise Morris; extended relatives, friends, and her church family.
