To Those Whom I Love & Those Who Love Me

*When I am gone, release me, let me go.
I have so many things to see and do,
You mustn't tie yourself to me with too many tears,
But be thankful we had so many good years.*

*I gave you my love, and you can only guess
how much you've given me in happiness.
I thank you for the love that you have shown,
But now it is time I traveled on alone.*

*So grieve awhile for me, if grieve you must,
then let your grief be comforted by trust.
It's only for a while that we must part,
so treasure the memories within your heart.*

*I won't be far away, for life goes on,
so if you need me, call and I will come.
Though you can't see or touch me, I'll be near,
and if you listen with your heart, you'll hear all my love around you soft and clear.*

*And then, when you must come this way alone,
I'll greet you with a smile and a
"Welcome Home."*

Precious Memories

Celebration of Life for Deacon Louis Terry Harris

Sunrise: April 7, 1949

Sunset:
January 21, 2026

Deacon Louis Terry Harris passed away Wednesday, January 21, 2026. Mr. Harris was born on April 7, 1949 to the late Sammy Harris, Sr. and Polly Mae Passley Harris. He was preceded by his parents, wife, Glenda Harris, son, Tyrone Harris, brother, Sammy Mickey Harris, sister, Ida Mae Helen Harris, brother-in-law, Morgan Watters, sisters-in-law, Frances Brown, and Ruby Harris.

A proud graduate of Stephens High School, Deacon Harris faithfully served as a Deacon and choir member at Bethesda Baptist Church. He retired from Collins and Aikman Carpet Mills, but retirement never slowed him down. Terry continued to serve his community by washing cars, mowing lawns, laying flooring, painting, and lending a hand wherever he was needed. He was known for his willingness to help anyone and for riding his bicycle all over town rather than accepting a ride. Those who knew him describe him as a genuinely good man who will be deeply missed. Though he is gone, he remains forever in our hearts.

Deacon Harris was outgoing, full of life, and happiest when surrounded by family and friends especially his grandchildren. He loved traveling and was always ready for a vacation whenever the opportunity came. Sundays after church were often spent enjoying a meal with his family and church family, moments he cherished dearly.

He is lovingly survived by his daughter, Christa Watters Burse of Summerville, Georgia; four sons, Bernard Watters, Anthony (Denise) Harris, Maurice (Camille) Harris, Jamie Kennedy, all of Calhoun, Georgia; three brothers, Ray Harris, Sr., Leonard Harris of Calhoun, Kent Harris of Cartersville, Georgia; daughter-in-law, Erica Harris, sisters-in-law, Brenda Harris, Marilyn Pope, Loraine Watters; brothers-in-law, Minister Calvin (Charlotte) Watters, Waitsal Brown, Sr.; a host of grandchildren, great grandchildren; nieces, nephews, cousins, other extended family, friends, and his church family.
