Footprints In The Sand

*One night I dreamed a dream.
As I was walking along the beach with my Lord.
Across the dark sky flashed scenes from my life.
For each scene, I noticed two sets of footprints in the sand,
One belonging to me and one to my Lord.*

*After the last scene of my life flashed before me,
I looked back at the footprints in the sand.
I noticed that at many times along the path of my life,
especially at the very lowest and saddest times,
there was only one set of footprints.*

*This really troubled me, so I asked the Lord about it.
"Lord, you said once I decided to follow you,
You'd walk with me all the way.*

But I noticed that during the saddest and most troublesome times of my life, there was only one set of footprints. I don't understand why, when I needed You the most, You would leave me."

*He whispered, "My precious child, I love you and will never leave you Never, ever, during your trials and testings. When you saw only one set of footprints,
It was then that I carried you."*

Precious Memories

Reflections of Life for

Ms. Dorothy Ann Perry "Dot"

Ms. Dorothy Ann Perry, passed away on Tuesday, March 3, 2026. Born on April 1, 1938, she was the daughter of the late William Ligon Perry and Allie Knowles. She was preceded in death by her daughter, Allie Rochell Butler; her twin sister, Georgia Ann Stewart; sisters Ardella Shropshire, Lillie Sneed, and Madgeline Brooks; and brothers John Henry Perry, Thomas Jett, and Richard Perry.

Affectionately known as Dot by her family and friends, she retired from Lindale Manufacturing and was a devoted member of Oak Hill Missionary Baptist Church, having accepted Jesus Christ at a young age. She cherished conversations with friends, visits with her siblings, shopping with family, and spending time with her grandsons. She was well known for making the best cornbread dressing and sweet potato soufflé.

She leaves behind her loving family; her son, Marcius D. (Sharronda) Thompson; grandchildren, Casimir Thompson, Boyd Butler, Jammal Dozier, and Craig Dozier; great grandson, Kainen Dozier; son-in-law, Walter Butler; brother, Gene Hudgins; nieces, nephews, cousins, other extended family,
