A Mother's Melody
By Kenneth Chaney

A mother's love never surrenders.

Her wars never cease in sleep.

Her care never stops giving.

And after she lays down to rest,

her voice and melody are still heard in those she leaves behind.

Cherished Memories

Celebration of Life for Mrs. Edna Mae Johnson Hudgins

Mrs. Edna Mae Johnson Hudgins was born November 3, 1938 in Trion, Georgia, to the late John Lester Johnson and Clara Cooley Farmer Johnson. A member of West Fifth Street Church of Christ, she retired from the Chattooga County School System after many years of dedicated service.

She was first married to Hollis Chaney, and later to the late Curtis Hudgins. She was preceded in death by her brother, Van Johnson, and her sister, Darryle Johnson. Edna was a proud 1958 graduate of A.C. Carter School.

Edna was a devoted mother, grandmother, sister, and friend. A lifelong member of the Trion community, she was cherished for her caring spirit, gentle kindness, and unwavering dedication to others.

Her faith was central to her life at West Fifth Street Church of Christ in Summerville. She lovingly prepared meals for special events, taught Bible classes, and served faithfully during Vacation Bible School each summer.

She leaves to cherish her memory her devoted children: her daughter, Tracy (John Williams) Chaney of Lyerly, Georgia; and her sons, Anthony (Marleeta) Chaney of Arkansas, Joey Chaney of Trion, Georgia, Fitzgerald (Rosie) Chaney of Powder Springs, Georgia, and Maurice (Demetria) Chaney of Trion, Georgia. She is also lovingly survived by nine grandchildren and ten great-grandchildren; sisters, Rose Page, Susie Bell Robinson, Loretta Franklin, Doris Price, and Doretha Smith; brothers, Billy (Mary) Johnson, Johnny Jr. (Marva) Johnson, and James Johnson; uncle, Lee Lester of Chattanooga, Tennessee, along with a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, other relatives, and friends.
