Life Reflections

For

Mr. James Marcus Kemp

Retired Sgt. First Class E-7 James Marcus Kemp of Calhoun, Georgia, and formerly of Chatsworth, Georgia, passed away on Sunday, August 2, 2026. Born on May 25, 1962, in Chatsworth, he was the son of the late Willie Lee Kemp, Sr. and Katie L. Ramsey Kemp.

Sgt. Kemp honorably served his country as a Retired Sergeant First Class E-7 in the United States Army. He was a member of Piney Grove Baptist Church, a graduate of Murray County High School, and was deeply loved by many friends and family. He found joy in fishing, cooking, traveling, and spending meaningful time with his great-grandchildren.

He was preceded in death by his brothers, Samuel Kemp and Willie Kemp, Jr., and his sister, Karen Josephine Kemp.

Cherished memories will forever remain with his daughters, Karen Shantelle Kemp and Kristen Kemp (Tyler) Berger; his sister, Ernestine (Donald) Sumlin; his brothers, Daniel Kemp and Willie L. (Stephanie) Beck; his five grandchildren, Kaibram, Kashun, Laniyah, Tyler, and Charlotte; and his three great-grandchildren. He is also lovingly remembered by his aunt, Allie Roberta (Jimmy) McClure; along with nieces, nephews, cousins, other relatives, and friends.
