Life Reflections

For

Ms. Joyce Ann Clark

Ms. Joyce Ann Clark, of Rossville, Georgia, passed away on Friday, August 7, 2026. She was born on January 29, 1956, to the late Rev. Talmadge Clark and Mary Ella Johnson Clark.

For 39 years, Ms. Clark served faithfully at Hutcheson Medical Center in Fort Oglethorpe, Georgia. Her compassion, dedication, and unwavering excellence made her a steady and beloved presence to colleagues, patients, and families alike. She leaves behind a legacy of love, strength, and devotion that continues to inspire all who knew her. In her free time, she cherished moments spent with family and enjoyed shopping.

She was preceded in death by her sisters, Mary Alice Grogins and Brenda Gale Foster.

She is survived by her loving children, Lapeachtriss Turner (Cedric) of Bowie, Maryland, and Gregory Clark (Bianca Knox) of Rossville, Georgia; grandchildren, Juhstic Turner of Bowie, Maryland, Cedric J. Turner of Raleigh, North Carolina, Kaela Addison (Keeshawn "Martin") of Laurel, Maryland, Ashanti Rochelle of Augusta, Georgia, Imani Clark, Gregory Clark II, Talmadge Clark, and Siah Clark of Rossville, Georgia, and Dasean McCall of Bowie, Maryland; great-grandchildren, Nyla Turner, Gabriel Turner McCall, Wynter Turner, Nova Turner, and Kennedy Addison. She is also survived by her brothers, Rev. James Clark of Chickamauga, Georgia, Robert Clark of Chattanooga, Tennessee, and Elder Michael Clark of Chickamauga, Georgia; brother-in-law, Willie Foster of Chickamauga, Georgia; her aunt, Bertha Burse of Rossville, Georgia; along with nieces, nephews, cousins, other relatives, friends, and her extended Hutcheson Medical Center family.
