

Howard Leo O'Neil was born March 28, 1962 in Alexandria, Virginia to the late Leo Howard O'Neil and Fanny Jeanette Colston. His memories will be cherished by children, Michael O'Neil, Catherine Jeanette Swain; two grandchildren; sister, Patricia Carolyn Duggan; life-partner, Jo Ann Quinn; many extended family and friends.

"To Laugh Often and Much; to win the respect of intelligent people and the affection of children....to leave the world a better place....to know even one life has breathed easier because you have lived.

This is to have succeeded. "

“For years Howard has drawn and designed kites in search of the perfect one. One that will soar and float on the wind like the brave beautiful eagle. To be free as the wind blowing thru the trees; to not be encumbered by the conditions of his body. Now he has the perfect design, the one the Lord promised. He is able now to soar on the wind, strong and healthy. He can flow thru trees unencumbered to enjoy again the sun on his face and no longer be held down by the pain and conditions of his body. “

Kite

Something is about to give
I can feel it coming
I think I know what it means
I'm not afraid to die
I'm not afraid to live
And when I'm flat on my back
I hope to feel like I did
And hardness, it sets in
You need some protection
The thinner the skin
I want you to know
That you don't need me anymore
I want you to know
You don't need anyone or anything at all
Who's to say where the wind will take you?
Who's to say what it is will break you?
I don't know which way the wind will blow
Who's to know when the time's come around?
Don't want to see you cry
I know that this is not goodbye
