CELEBRATING

THE LIFE AND LEGACY OF

OUR GIFT: FEBRUARY 11, 1961 ♦ GOD'S TREASURE: APRIL 6, 2025

A portrait of a smiling woman with short, dark hair, wearing black-rimmed glasses and a purple V-neck top. She is wearing a black rosary with a silver cross pendant. The background is a plain, light-colored wall.

When I come to the end of the road and the sun has set for me
want no rites in a gloom filled room
Why cry for a soul set free?
Miss me a little, but not for long
And not with your head bowed low Remember the love that once we shared. Miss me but let me go.
For this is a journey we all must take
and each must go alone.
It's all part of the master plan
A step on the road to home.
When you are lonely and sick at heart. Go to the friends we know.
Laugh at all the things we used to do
Miss me, But let me go.

A QUIET PRAYER FOR MOTHER

A loving nature, a heart of gold, the very best mother this world could hold. Never selfish, always kind, these are the memories you left behind
A silent thought, a quiet prayer, for a special mother, in Gods care.

Son and Daughter in law

THE BROKEN CHAIN

We little knew that morning that God was going to call your name. In Life we loved you dearly, in death we do the same. It broke our hearts to lose you, you did not go alone; for part of us went with you, the day God called you home. You left us peaceful memories. Your love is still our guide; and though we cannot see you, you are always at our side. Our Family chain is broken, and nothing seems the same; but as God calls us one by one, the chain will link again.

GRANDMA

I thought of you today, but that is nothing new. I thought about you yesterday and days before that too.
Your memory is a keepsake from which I'll never part. God has you in his arms, I have you in my heart.

UNTIL WE MEET AGAIN

We think about you always, we talk about you still, you have never been forgotten, and you never will. We hod you close within our hearts and there you will remain, to walk and guide us through our lives, until we meet again.
