

My Last Party

*When you come to my last party
Don't come with faces long,
But come with memories that are pleasant,
In your heart, let there be a song.
The place will be full of flowers,
And I will be dressed grand.
The only thing I shall be sorry for:
I will not be able to shake your hand.
When you come to my last party,
I don't know yet how soon it will be,
The newspaper has printed
An invitation for all to see.*

*I am going to hold it in a church-like place,
And no one will be turned away.
At the place where I hold my party
Many of my friends will come to pray.
When you come to my last party,
We won't play any games,
But there will be a register
Where you may sign your name.
As you stand there and sing my praises
In voices so silently,
Think about the good things you know about me.*

*When you come to my last party,
In spirit I'll be there,
And as you stare at me
Right back through closed eyelids
At you I'll stare.
And when you say that I look natural,
That is as it should be,
Because at my last party
Who should look more natural than me?
I did the best that I know how,
It's up to God to take care of me now.*

*To my friends and family, I'm in heaven somewhere,
so enjoy my party as if I was still there!!*

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT
The Family of Phito Altona would like to extend sincere thanks for all acts of love and encouragement shown during this most difficult hour of bereavement. Your expressions of support will be remembered and individually acknowledged at a later time. May God bless you always.

"TO THOSE I LOVE"
*When I am gone, just release me, let me go
So I can move into my afterglow.
You mustn't tie me down with your tears;
Let's be happy that we had so many years.
I gave you my love, you can only guess
How much you gave me in happiness.
I thank you for the love you each have shown,
But now it's time I traveled on alone.
So grieve for me a while, if grieve you must,
Then let your grief be comforted with trust.
It's only for a while that we must part,
So bless the memories within your heart.
And then, when you must come this way alone,
I'll greet you with a smile and say
"WELCOME HOME."*

HIS LIFE & LEGACY

PHITO ALTONA was born on September 20, 1970, to Jacqueline Altona and Sauveur Petit-Homme in Merger, Haiti. Phito attended Methodist Carrefour for elementary and Philippe Premier for high school. While in Haiti, Phito ran a small business with his mother, Jacqueline.

In 1992, at the age of 22, Phito entered the United States looking for a better life. He then started life here in Fort Pierce, Florida. In 1995, he met his beautiful wife, Angeline Bazelais, at the First Haitian Church of the Nazarene of Fort Pierce; they later began dating in 1996. On October 11, 1997, they became one. Phito loved his wife for 25 years. From 1998 to 2003, he and his wife had three beautiful children, Jonathan, Mckenley and Samantha Altona.

Phito was a jack of all trades. He worked as a tailor, chef and Certified Nursing Assistant (CNA). After working many other jobs, in 2003 Phito decided to pursue his dreams and became a professional truck driver. He was a hardworking man who never complained, and he eventually became a business owner of his own trucking company. Phito was a truck driver for 20 years, and he enjoyed every year doing it to provide for his family.

Phito was an amazing husband, father, son, cousin, uncle and friend. He had a voice that roared but meant no harm. Everywhere Phito went, he was always the loudest one in the room. He filled every room with his bright spirit and that sweet voice of his. Whenever Phito stepped out, he always made sure he dressed to impress and smelled real good no matter where he went; his legendary headset was never too far. He loved his family dearly, and they were his number one priority. Phito did everything out of love. He never let anything stop him from doing what he needed to do. Even if others discouraged him, he would block that out and do what he needed to do. He was always determined to make his family proud. Phito will be missed dearly by all his family and friends.

On June 16, 2023, at 5:05 A.M., in Daytona Beach, Florida, Phito was called home to his Lord and Savior. He was preceded in death by his father, Sauveur Petit-Homme; son, McKenley Joshua Altona; grandmother, Annelia Alexis; grandfather, Marcedoiane Altona; uncles, Maxi, Ozias and Nemy Altona.

Phito will be remembered by his wife, Angeline Bazelais; son, Jonathan McKenzy Altona; daughter, Samantha Angie Altona; mother, Jacqueline Altona; mother-in-law, Gelie Cimeus; brothers, Bogaiye and Jacquei Petit-Homme; uncles, Wilson (Oseline Alexis) and Isaac Altona; aunts, Naomie, Suprime and Josline Altona; nephews, Smith Petit-Homme and Jacqueson Petit-Homme; nieces, Smithsha Petit-Homme; best friends, Laureore Monfort, Jean Delix Rejouix “Fanfan,” Jean-Paul Lermot and Ernest Pierre “TiFre”; and a host of cousins and friends who loved him dearly, the Altona Family, the Alexis Family, the Dessin Family, the Lindor Family and the Celestin Family.
