OBITUARY

Ms. Tunja Danette Crawford was born May 31, 1964 in Athens, GA to Mr. Joe and the late Mrs. Flora Dean Bankston. She was called to eternal rest on Tuesday, December 26, 2023 with family and friends by her side.

She joined Ebenezer Baptist Church West, Athens, GA at an early age under the leadership of Rev. Dr. Winfred M. Hope. There she served as an usher, a member of the choir and assisted with various community outreach programs.

Danette or "Net" as she was known by many, graduated from Clarke Central High School in 1982. She was a member of the Future Business Leaders of America (FBLA). In her senior year, she was voted "Best Dressed" by her classmates. She later attended Athens Tech and served as a Secretary in the Athens Tech chapter of the Future Secretaries Association.

After finishing her education at Athens Tech, Sis. Crawford was employed at the U.S. Department of Agriculture for over 20 years where she served in various roles and capacities. She would go on and serve as the church secretary at Ebenezer Baptist Church West in operational duties to maintain the church and support members.

In her free time, she enjoyed crocheting, being at the church even when she wasn't working, and spending time with family and friends.

In addition to her mother, she was preceded in death by her sister, Karen Vanessa Bankston.

She leaves to cherish her memories: her loving daughters, Summer Vanessa Crawford and Autumn Vanessa Crawford, both of Athens, GA; her supportive father, Joe L. Bankston of Athens, GA; five aunts, Carolyn (Pete) Sheppard, Annie Bankston of Athens, GA, Catherine Bankston of Landover, Maryland, Lavonne Bankston of Washington, DC and Valerie Bankston of Athens, GA; one uncle, Anthony (Cassandra) Bankston of Athens, GA, and a special cousin Karen (Steve) Dean Horton of Athens, GA; and a host of cousins, other relatives and friends.
