Shirley Moore Daniel

Shirley Moore Daniel was born in Augusta, Georgia on August 7, 1947 to the parentage of the late Charlie and Lula Moore. She left a legacy of love and compassion that will forever be cherished. Her passing on July 17, 2024, marked the end of a life filled with dedication and service to others.

A beacon of inspiration, Shirley was a shining example of perseverance and achievement. A graduate of Lucy Craft Laney High School, she went on to earn a Bachelors of Science in Social Studies from Paine College and Master in Counseling from University of Georgia. Shirley is a member of Delta Sigma Theta Sorority. Her thirst for knowledge and desire to help others guided her throughout her life.

In a love story that spanned over five decades, Shirley was married to her loving husband, Valdón Roosevelt Daniel, for 56 years. Their union was a testament to the power of love and commitment. Valdón and Shirley met at Paine College their first day of freshman year. Together they raised three wonderful children: Valdón R. Daniel, II (son), Valtra Daniel (daughter) and Valdámír Daniel (son), instilling in them the values of family, faith and perseverance.

Shirley's impact as an educator was profound, touching the lives of countless children in Clarke, Oglethorpe, and Jackson counties. From her early days at Oglethorpe High School to her tenure at Cedar Shoal High School and time at Hilsman Middle School and guidance counselor for Jackson County, she was a pillar of strength and wisdom for her students. Alongside her beloved husband, Shirley co-hosted a radio show, "Parenting 101," sharing valuable insights and guidance with the community for a decade.

A devoted member of Ebenezer Baptist Church, West, Shirley's faith was a guiding light in her life. She started a dance ministry and led a girl scout troop for over 20 years, nurturing the spirits of young minds and hearts. She enjoyed many types of crafts, including knitting, embroidery, decorating gourds, painting, cooking and reading. Her love for crafts reflected her vibrant spirit and creativity, showcasing her talents and passions.
