Obituary

Mamie Lee Ennis was born May 22, 1936 to Bessie Lee and Louis Williams, Sr. in Madison, Georgia. Mamie entered her eternal home on July 31, 2024 after battling a brief illness. At an early age she moved to Omaha Nebraska. In 1962, she met and married Luther Ennis.

She was a dedicated member of Salem Baptist Church, Omaha, NE for over 60 years. She worked for Omaha Public Schools for 23 years. Her career started at McMillan Jr High School as Kitchen Assistant. She retired from North High School in 1996 as Production Chief.

Mamie was always busy doing the things she liked which included cooking, gardening, sewing, crocheting, and collecting family pictures. She loved bingo, working word puzzle books and eating fish on Fridays. But most of all, she enjoyed traveling and spending time with her family.

She was blessed to have nephew Anthony Williams, Sr., Minneapolis, MN and niece Romana Haynes, Omaha, NE to provide loving care to their Aunt Mamie.

Mamie was preceded in death by her parents Bessie Lee and Louis Williams, Sr., former husband Luther Ennis, brother Willie Lee Williams, Sr. and sister-in-law Fannie B. Williams. She leaves to cherish her memories: four sisters, Clara L. (Rufus) Haynes, Omaha, NE, Doris R. Williams, Omaha, NE, Rosia M. Daniel, Athens GA and Joyce D. Polite, Atlanta, GA; two brothers: Robert M. Williams, Athens, GA and Lewis (Georgia) Williams, Jr., Athens, GA; sister-in-law, Ruby Williams, Athens, GA; grand nephews: Kyree Williams and Anthony Williams Jr., Minneapolis, MN and a host of caring, loving nieces, nephews, cousins, friends and church family.
