The Life of Christopher L. Patman

Christopher Leon Patman, affectionately known as “Bubba”, was born July 27, 1992 to the parentage of Gloria and Stanley Patman in Athens, GA. God called His Soldier home on October 2, 2024.

Christopher graduated from Clarke Central High School, Class of 2010. After graduation, he attended Athens Technical College for Automotive. “Bubba” enjoyed spending time with and being there for his family, especially playing games with his nieces and nephews. His hobbies included: watching football, playing his game and he loved working on his cars. “Bubba” was the baby of the family and was and always will be loved.

He leaves to cherish his precious memories: his mother, Gloria Patman; his father, Stanley Patman; sisters, Fiana Patman and Shantraneke Brown; aunts, Gwendolyn (Mike) Sorden, Lisa Gresham and Barbara Gresham; uncles, Stacey Patman and Leo Patman; grandmother, Lou Wise; cousins, Sandra Gresham and Stacey, Jr.; nieces, LaHeaven and Laqunita Maxey and Dasia Jones; nephews, Santavious Maxey, Broderick Davenport and Ladarius Lanier; other relatives and friends.
