Celebrating the Life of Martha Sue "MaSue" Johnson

Martha Sue "MaSue" Johnson was born on October 23, 1931, to Otha and Emma Sue Woods. "MaSue" grew up in Watkinsville, Georgia on a farm enjoying the simple joys in life. She developed a deep love for nature and enjoyed fishing and gardening.

"MaSue" also enjoyed moments of fun and fellowship, often finding joy in playing bingo with friends. But one of her most beloved pastimes was the quiet comfort of rocking on her front porch, where she reflected on life's blessings and enjoyed the beauty of her surroundings.

As the years passed, "MaSue" experienced both joy and sorrow. She was preceded in death by her husband, Willie James Johnson Sr.; her cherished daughter, Martha Ann Smith; and her stepsons, Willie James Johnson Jr., Chris Johnson, Harry Johnson and Pete Johnson. She also mourned the loss of her brother, Otis Woods and her sister, Florene Woods.

Despite these losses, "MaSue" remained strong. Sadly, she was diagnosed with breast cancer in 2018. After this diagnosis she found peace in quiet reflection on cherished memories and spending time with her grandson, DJ. When people came to visit her favorite quote was "I ain't seen you in 6 months."

Martha Sue "MaSue" Johnson passed away on November 20, 2024, at the age of 93. Her life was a testament to love, resilience and the joy found in life's simplest pleasures. She will be remembered for her warm smile and the strength that defined her.

Today, we celebrate her remarkable journey and the legacy of love she leaves behind.

"MaSue" leaves to cherish her memories: her son, Zackary (Surriender) Johnson and daughters, Denise (Damon) Allen and A.D. (Jacquelyn) Huff; grandchildren, Kim (Carla) Woods, Shannon (Jeff) Smith, Karmashay Allen, Damon "D.J." Allen, Jr., Tamia Allen, Montoya Huff, Japan Huff, Fashanna Woodley, Kiara Beck and Octivia Johnson; 21 great grandchildren; God daughter, Sabrina Smith and her daughter, Michiah Baker.
