God Saw

God saw the road was getting long
The hills were hard to climb;
He gently closed her weary eyes,
and whispered, "Peace be thine."
Her days of toil, the nights of pain,
Her weary hours are past.
Her patient, worn, tired frame,
Has found sweet rest at last.

Repast

Immediately following the interment, the family will fellowship with relatives and friends in the church fellowship hall.

Acknowledgements

We are eternally grateful to our family and friends for your love, thoughts, and prayers, which help to sustain us during the passing of our loved one. May the Lord pour out His blessings upon all our family and friends..-The Family

Obituary

“The Lord is my shepherd I shall not want.. Psalm 23:1

Elder Hubren Shelley Davis, Jr. was the son of the late Hubren Shelley Davis, Sr. and Bonzolar Walker Davis. He was born on March 8, 1932, in Savannah, Georgia. Hubren was summoned to eternal rest on July 16, 2024, at the Veterans Affairs Medical Center in Durham, NC.

He was educated in the public schools and graduated from A.E. Beach High School in Savannah, Georgia.

Hubren joined the Army and fought in the Korean War. After returning to the US, he attended Savannah State University. Hubren moved to New York and worked at the Brooklyn Navy Shipyard. He often reminded his family and friends that Allen Clayton Powell helped him gain employment at the U.S. Post Office. He was also proud that he had the opportunity to march with Dr. Martin Luther King Jr.

After moving to New Jersey, Hubren was employed by All Right Pen Company where he met the love of his life, the Late Eldress Lucille Jones Davis. They shared forty-four years of holy matrimony and were blessed with four children, Kirk, Karl, Kris and Karen. The couple moved to North Carolina in 1973 and resided in Warren County. As a father, Hubren was very protective, loving, and stood on what he said.

Hubren accepted the “Call of God” and became a minister in 1981. Elder Davis was the Pastor of United Friendship Holy Church of Christ until his passing. He dedicated his life to serving the Lord and preaching God’s word. He was known for his bold sermons and powerful testimonies. Elder Davis would often reference Mathew 5:48 “Be ye therefore perfect, even as your Father who is in heaven is perfect”.

In addition to his parents, Hubren Shelly Davis, Sr. and Bonzolar Walker Davis and wife, Hubren is preceded in death by his brothers, Lloyd Benjamin Davis, Sr. and Edward Davis; his sons: Hubren (Dubie) Davis III, Gregory Davis; his son-in-law: Marlon Campbell; his sister-in-law: Barbara Davis, Corine Davis, Clementine Austin; his brother-in-law: Marvin Austin, James Jones, Phillip Jones.
