The 23rd Psalm

The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: he leadeth me beside the still waters. He restoreth my soul: he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me. Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.

The Obituary

Evelyn Louise Allen Wilson was born on December 8, 1970, to James Hatch Allen and Greta Ann Augustus at City Hospital in Baltimore, Maryland and was premature baby. Evelyn went to be with the lord on Thursday, August 22, 2024 at Duke University Hospital, in Durham North Carolina. God needed another angel and he chose to take our precious wife, mother and sister.

She was dedicated to her Christian faith.

Evelyn was a bus driver for Durham Public schools, where she met the love of her life, Peter Wilson. They were united in holy matrimony on March 15, 2009.

Evelyn loved life; she always had a smile for everyone she met. Her nickname, Tweedy Bird, came from her two older sisters Juanita and Kim. As the oldest siblings, they were allowed to see her through the hospital nursery window. Juanita and Kim thought she looked like a baby bird with a lot of hair and a tiny body and the name Tweedy Bird stayed with her throughout her life. She will never be forgotten. Our hearts are aching and our memories are massive and our time with her was not enough.

She is mourned and leaves behind her beloved husband, Peter Wilson; her daughters, Shanice and Realitee; her beautiful granddaughter, Emelia; her five sisters, Juanita Choyce, Kim McKiver (Dwight), Tara King, Judy Evans, and Janet Leathers (Darryl); and many nieces, nephews, aunts, uncles and cousins.

Tweedy, when you left us, the day was beautiful, the sky was blue, your mom and dad held out their arms: they were open and ready to receive you in Heaven. We know we will never see you in the flesh again but our memories of you will live in our hearts forever.
