A Fallen Limb

A limb has fallen from the family tree.
I keep hearing a voice that says, "Grieve not for me.
Remember the best times, the laughter, the song.
The good life I lived while I was strong.
Continue my heritage, I'm counting on you.
Keep smiling and surely the sun will shine through.
My mind is at ease, my soul is at rest.
Remembering all, how I truly was blessed.
Continue traditions, no matter how small.
Go on with your life, don't worry about falls
I miss you all dearly, so keep up your chin.
Until the day comes, we're together again

He leaves to cherish his memory one daughter, Tameka Holmes of Raleigh, NC; two stepdaughters, Alisha Seward and Shanna Seward of Manson, NC; five step-grandchildren; one brother, Sheldon (Brenda) Twitty of Warrenton, NC; two sisters, Coresa Twitty of Kenbridge, VA and Veda (Phillip) Clark of Welcome, MD; and one-half-sister; four uncles, Walter (LeVonie) Twitty, George Twitty, Alonzo Montague, and Charles (Brenda) Montague; four aunts, Mable (John) Scott, Theresa, Patricia and Mahalie; three nieces, Rayvonne (Shawn) Hicks of Youngsville, NC, Jamisha Twitty of Durham, NC and Kiana Clark of Welcome, MD; four nephews, Shawon Perry of Warrenton, NC, Dominique (Sabora) Twitty of Durham, Darnell (Monique) Clark of Welcome, MD and Jarell Jiggetts of Warrenton, NC; several cousins who were more like brothers and sisters, especially his travel road dog, Everett Gunter and his dance partner, Teresa Twitty; a special niece, Vanora (Tika) Alston; and a host of other cousins, aunts, uncles, relatives, and friends.

He knew how to light up a room and will truly be missed!
