

The Day God Took You Home

*You never said, "I'm leaving."
You never said, "Good-bye."
You were gone before I knew it,
And only God knew why.
A million times I needed you;
A million times I cried.
If love alone could have saved you,
You never would have died.
In life, I loved you dearly;
In death, I love you still.
In my heart, you hold a place
That no one could ever fill.
It broke my heart to lose you,
But you didn't go alone.
Part of me went with you
The day God took you home.*

Dr. Harold Bennett III, Pastor, Officiating

Let not your heart be troubled; ye believe in God. Believe also in me. In my father's house are many mansions; if it were not so, I would have told you. I go to prepare A place for you. And if I go prepare for you, I will come again, and receive you unto myself; That where I am, there ye may be also.

John 14:1-3

Isom's Life

Isom Calvin Wright was born on June 19, 1950, to William J. Wright and Leola Mary Hunter Wright in Haines City, Florida. Out of this beautiful union, he is the youngest of four children: Gwendolyn Yvonne Monroe ("Baby Gwen"), William Jack Wright ("Wousty"), James Bernard Wright ("Papa"), and Isom Calvin Wright ("Calvin").

Isom attended Oakland High School in Haines City. His various jobs included working at the Oakland Fertilizer Plant and serving as a head cook at a restaurant. He studied electrical work by trade and was a jack of many trades, excelling in cooking, sewing, and more.

At a very young age, he joined the New Mt. Zion Missionary Baptist Church in Haines City under the leadership of the late Reverend C. W. Dawson. Later in life, he returned to the church under Pastor Noel Scott and now current Pastor Dr. Harold Bennett III.

He was preceded in death by his parents, William Wright and Leola Williams, as well as his brother James Bernard Wright. Isom leaves behind cherished memories, including his son Isom Feilder, his beloved sister Gwendolyn Monroe of Haines City, and his older brother William J. Wright of Haines City, Florida. He is also survived by nephews, Floyd B. Monroe of Haines City, Florida, James B. Monroe of Lakeland, Florida, Antronairo L. Monroe of Haines City, Florida, and his favorite niece, Stephanie Streeter of Winter Haven, Florida; along with a host of loving nieces, nephews, cousins, and other family members.

I'm Free

*Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free.
I'm following the path God laid for me.
I took His hand when I heard Him call;
I turned my back and left it all.
I could not stay another day
To laugh, to love, to work, or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way;
I've now found peace at the end of day.
If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it with remembered joys:
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss.
Oh, yes, these things I, too, will miss.
Be not burdened with times of sorrow;
Look for the sunshine of tomorrow.
My life has been full; I savored much:
Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.
Perhaps my time seems all too brief;
Don't lengthen your pain with undue grief.
Lift up your heart, and peace to thee.
God wanted me now—He has set me free.*
