

I'm Free

*Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free.
I'm following the path God has chosen for me.
I took his hand when I heard Him call.
I turned my back and left it all.
I could not stay another day
To laugh, to love, to work, or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way.
I found that peace at the close of the day.
If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it with remembered joys.
For my children, grandchildren, great-grandchildren,
great-great-grandchildren, relatives and friends*

*A laugh, a kiss
Oh yes, these things, I too will miss.
Be not burdened with times of sorrow.
Look for the sunshine tomorrow.
My life's been full, I've savored much.
Good friends, good times.
Perhaps my time seemed all too brief.
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your head and peace to thee.
God wanted me now, He set me free.*

Precious Memories

Order of Service

William Richards, Presiding

Zorah Melvin Hall (Zorah with an “H”) was born to the late Loella Rose Lawson on September 19, 1940. She was the only child of an only child, who was named after the hometown from which Sampson of the bible hailed. And like Sampson, her strength was quiet—not loud or boastful, but when needed she could summon the power to be a fierce warrior and protector of her family. She and her mother lived in Miami, Connecticut, Detroit, and Sanford, Florida, but she proudly called Lake Hamiton her home where she met and married her late husband Hartford James Hall on March 31, 1961.

She is predeceased by her devoted grandparents Samuel and Ella Rose, son Gregory Leonard and daughter Patrice Michelle. She leaves four children: Constance Elaine, Atlanta, GA; Rhonda Lynette, Winter Haven, FL; Dennise LaVerne, Rochester, NY, and Victor Maurice, Rochester, NY to cherish and honor her memory. She is survived by 16 grandchildren, 24 great-grandchildren and four great-great grandchildren, a host of nieces, nephews, cherished friends and extended family.

Zorah was a people person, she loved laughter, was an avid reader, enjoyed doing her crossword puzzles and typing. She was employed at Walt Disney World’s Contemporary Resort for 30 years before her retirement.
