Her Life Story

Louise Carrie King

Louise Carrie King transition from this life to be with the Lord on Thursday, June 13, 2024.

Louise Carrie King was born October 27, 1945, in Barnwell County to the late Mr. James Carrie and Mrs. Ida Bell Carrie. She was preceded in death by her parents, brother, William Carrie, and sister, Elaine Carrie.

At an early age, Louise accepted Christ as her Savior and joined Ebenezer Missionary Baptist Church, while attending Kelly Edwards School.

Louise worked 29 years at Williston-Elko School District Cafeteria. She took proud and loved every child that came through her line. She made every child feel important while leaving a lasting impression. Louise helped raised numerous family and neighborhood kids. Throughout her life, she was loving, mild-manner, and never met a stranger.

FREE

Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free,
 I'm following paths God made for me
 I took his hand I heard him call
 Then turned, and bid farewell to all
 I could not stay another day
 To laugh, to love, to sing, to play
 Tasks left undone must stay that way
 I found my peace... at close of play
 And if my parting left a void
 Then fill it with remembered joy
 A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss
 Ah yes, these things I too will miss.
 Be not burdened... deep with sorrow
 I wish you sunshine of tomorrow
 My life's been full I've savoured much
 Good friends, good times A loved one's touch
 Perhaps my time seemed all too brief
 Don't lengthen it now with grief
 Lift up your hearts and share with me,
 God wants me now... He set me free.
