RECESSIONAL

DON'T GRIEVE FOR ME FOR NOW I'm Free

*Don't grieve for me for now I'm free
I'm following the path God laid for me.
I took His hand when I heard Him call;
I turned my back and left it all.*

*I could not stay another day,
To laugh, to love, to work or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way;
I found that place at the close of day.*

*If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it with remembered joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss;
Ah yes, these things, I too will miss.*

*Be not burdened with times of sorrow
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My life's been full, I savored much;
Good friends, good times, a loved ones touch.*

*Perhaps my time seems all too brief;
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your heart and share with me,
God wanted me now, He set me free.*

Prayer

Gracious Lord,
We entrust Woody into Your loving care. May his soul find rest in Your presence—where there is no pain, no sorrow, only eternal peace and joy. Lord, be with us as we mourn, and grant us the strength to carry on with faith. Though we say goodbye for now, we hold fast to the promise that we will meet again. Until that day, may Woody's love continue to shine through us, and may Your peace be our comfort and guide. Amen.

Remembering Woody

"I Have fought a good fight, I have finished my course, I have kept the faith." -2 Timothy 4:7

From an early age, Woody displayed a remarkable spirit of compassion and resilience. He dedicated his life to serving others, whether through his career as MMS (Mobile Motorcoach Solutions) or in his involvement with Community. Known for his warm smile and generous heart, Woody touched the lives of everyone he encountered. His unwavering faith was a guiding light to his family and community, and his presence will be deeply missed by all who knew him.

Woody enjoyed traveling and socializing with his friends. He often spoke of his friends and family during family reunions. He was well known for his great cooking skills for which he always bragged about. Woody enjoyed participating in all his children's and grandchildren's lives. He regularly attended all family functions and activities.

Woody will be remembered for his love of family, his dedication to his faith, and his endless kindness to others. His legacy of love, for and service will live on in the hearts of all who were blessed to know him.

Woody was preceded in death by his father, Woodrow Pete Wallace and mother, Dorothy Gray Rasberry-Wallace; one brother, Johnny Ray Rasberry; two sisters, Gloria Jean Hines and Julie Ann Worthington-Williams.

He leaves behind to cherish his memories; wife and soulmate, Ersella Barrier-Wallace of the home; six children, Michelle Barrier Wiggins (James), Frederico Barrier (Linda), Jessica Barrier (Jamal), Caprice D. Antignac, Camori D'Antignac and Christian Wallace; ten grandchildren; three brothers, Linwood Earl Rasberry (Carolyn), Roger Jones, and Marvin Dean Wallace (Talesha); three sisters, Angela Lynette Pender (Jasper), Amara Gavi, and Edna Carol (Doug); two aunts, Mildred Cogdell of Paris, Texas and Rubell Hood of Snow Hill, NC; mother-in-law, Mary Barrier; three aunt-in-laws, Rosa McDuffie, Robbie Evans, and Sharon D'Antignac; three uncles, Preston McDuffie (Ysheba), Grip McDuffie, and Dicky McDuffie; two sister-in-laws, Annette Smith (Mike) and Gladys McElvens (Brian); brother-in-laws, Marcus Barrier; a host of cousins, nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.

Family & Friends TRIBUTES

TRIBUTE FROM ERSELLA, WIFE

"To my dearest husband, you were more than just a friend—you were my confidante, my biggest supporter, and my soulmate. Your laughter brought light even on my darkest days, and your love was a blessing I held close. Though you're no longer here with me, your presence lives on in my heart. Thank you for being someone I could always rely on. I love you deeply, and I'll carry your memory with me, always."

TRIBUTE FROM ANGELA, SISTER

"To my brother—my forever friend and guiding light—thank you for being my greatest supporter and for filling my life with love, laughter, and strength. You taught me the true meaning of kindness and courage. I'll miss your wisdom, your smile, and all the little ways you always looked out for me. Though you're no longer here, your spirit stays with me, reminding me to live fully and love deeply—just like you did."

TRIBUTE FROM KIDS & GRANDCHILDREN

"You filled our hearts with love and joy. You were our greatest blessing—our pride, our happiness. Your kindness, laughter, and beautiful spirit left a lasting mark on everyone around you. Though you're no longer by our side, you will live forever in our hearts. You were—and will always be—our precious father and grandpa. Rest peacefully. Until we meet again."

"Those we love don't go away they walk beside us every day _ unseen, unheard but always near, still loved, still missed, and forever dear."
