

OBITUARY

Mary Elizabeth Redman, 81, of Reidsville, North Carolina, a beloved member of her community, passed away on February 17, 2026. She passed peacefully in her sleep. She reunited with her parents, Otis D. and Janie E. Finney-Carter, her husband, Charles K. Redman, son, Mark A. Redman and her sisters, Carol Ann Carter and Rosa Lee Carter Brown.

Mary was an exceptional daughter and student, graduating at the age of seventeen. During the following decade she worked as a housekeeper and nanny, all while meeting and marrying Charles Redman and raising two children. At the age of twenty-eight, she began her career in finance, working and retiring from what is now known as Chase Bank. After retiring in 2000, she devoted her time to her grandkids and great grandchild. Filling her days with love, smiles and laughter.

Mary known affectionately as “Lin” by her close friends and family, will be deeply missed by her daughter; Celestine (Tina) McCall, her son-in-law; Carl McCall, granddaughters; Sierra L. Graham, A. McCall and Cody A. McCall. Great granddaughter, Isabella (Bella) Graves and many other cousins and friends.

HER JOURNEY'S JUST BEGUN

Don't think of her as gone away - Her journey has just begun Life holds many facets The Earth is only one.....
Just think of her as resting from the sorrows and the tears
In a place of warmth and comfort,
where there are no days and years Think how she must be wishing that we could know today.
How nothing but our sadness can really pass away
And think of her as living in the hearts of those she touched.
For nothing loved is ever lost and she was loved so much.

Do Not Stand at My Grave and Weep
by —Mary Elizabeth Frye

Do not stand at my grave and weep
I am not there. I do not sleep.
I am a thousand winds that blow.
I am the diamond glints on snow.
I am the sunlight on ripened grain.
I am the gentle autumn rain.
When you awaken in the morning's hush
I am the swift uplifting rush
Of quiet birds in circled flight.
I am the soft star that shines at night.
Do not stand at my grave and cry.
I am not there. I did not die.
