

Look for me in the Rainbows

Time for me to go now, I won't say
goodbye;

Look for me in rainbows, way up in the sky In the morning sunrise when all the world is new, Just look for me and love me.
as you know I loved you.

Time for me to go now, I won't say
goodbye;

Look for me in rainbows, high up in the sky.

In the evening sunset.

when all the world is through, Just look for me and love me and I'll be close to you.
It won't be forever, the day will come and then

My loving arms will hold you, when we meet again.

Time for us to part now, we won't say
goodbye;

Look for me in rainbows, shining in the sky.

Every waking moment and all your whole life through Just look for me and love me.
as you know I loved you.
Just wish me near to you, And I'll be there with you.

Sylvia Mitchell Perry

The sun may set, the stars may fade,
A light so bold, a heart so free,

But her impact will never fade.
She gave the best of what could be.

Obituary

Sylvia Mitchell Long, some call her mama, one called her daughter, others sister or Auntie, and many call her family or a friend. Yet she is most affectionately known as Sylvia, and what matters most is that she is loved. Sylvia boldly entered this world on July 23, 1965. She departed from this earthly vessel on Friday, March 6th, 2026, at her home in Winston Salem, North Carolina.

Sylvia was a dedicated member of Greater Grace Holiness Church in Walnut Cove, North Carolina, for a long period of her life. But for the past few years she attended Fountain of Youth, Madison NC under the leadership of Bishop William Phillips. After graduating from South Stokes High, Sylvia wore many hats in the community. By helping the elderly or disabled while assisting them with cleaning, cooking or just company to chat. Sylvia was always willing to be a helping hand to anyone that was in need.

She had a heart of gold and was always smiling and cracking jokes.

In all aspects, she touched many lives and helped many people. Her energy was so contagious, it was impossible not to love her. She loved everyone unselfishly and unconditionally the same.

Sylvia was preceded in death by her Father, the late Andrew "Sweet" Mitchell, her maternal and paternal grandparents, and 1 sister Vanessa Mitchell.

Although she isn't physically here with us her memory will forever be cherished by her beloved & adored children, William Mitchell, Ivory Mitchell & Kimberly Mitchell (of the home); Grandchildren Serenity, Sincerity, Karizma, Zane, Santana, and Little William; Loving Mother Annie Mae Mitchell (Walnut Cove, NC); irreplaceable sisters, Marilyn Mitchell (Winston Salem, NC), Loretta (Eddie) Adams (Walnut Cove, NC), Velvet Mitchell (Winston Salem); influential brothers Perry (Alice) Mitchell (Walnut Cove, NC), Renee (Michelle) Mitchell (Madison, NC), Chris (Jacinta) Mitchell (Winston Salem, NC), and 2 very special nieces Minister Nicole Foster(Mayodan, NC) and Desirae Mitchell (Winston Salem, NC); an abundance of aunts and uncles, very specially-bonded nieces and nephews, and extended friends who were family to her just the same, who will miss her dearly.
