

"JJ" Kellam

MY NEW HOME

God tells me,
my time here is endless
with much to do.
He instructs me to enjoy my new Home, sing a lot, but mostly guard and pray for you.
Family, I am safe
with NO reasons to roam.
I am living with God
in my new Home.

WORDS OF GRATITUDE

We, The family of Mr. Jerome "JJ" Jermaine Kellam wish to express our sincere thanks and gratitude for the many comforting acts of kindness and sympathy shown during the passing of our beloved "JJ".
May God forever bless you.

THE LIFE STORY OF

Jerome "JJ" Kellam

Jerome Jermaine "JJ" Kellam, affectionately known as "Short Dog," departed this life far too soon on May 10, 2026. Born on June 22, 1977, in Eden, North Carolina, he was the beloved son of Mary D. Kellam.

Jerome graduated from John Motley Morehead High School in Eden and later studied Management and Marketing at Southwest Florida College in Tampa, Florida. He was a hardworking man who lived a simple life rooted in love, loyalty, and genuine connection with others.

"JJ" never met a stranger. With his big eyes, contagious smile, and warm personality, he had a special way of making everyone feel welcomed and appreciated. He loved deeply and did his best to show that love to family, friends, and anyone fortunate enough to cross his path. His laughter, energy, and zest for life made him unforgettable.

He enjoyed lifting weights, walking, and reading, but what he treasured most was spending time with the people he loved. Whether sharing stories, jokes, or simply his presence, Jermaine brought joy wherever he went.

He was preceded in death by his grandparents, Loyce and Anniebell Dalton, Edward and Francis Kellam, along with several beloved aunts and uncles.

Left to cherish his memory are his devoted mother, Mary D. Kellam; his brother, Jerrod Kellam; and a host of aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews, extended family, and dear friends.

Jerome's life may have ended too soon, but the love he gave will live on forever.
