"I'm Free"

by Anne Lindgren Davison

Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free, I'm following the path God laid for me.
I took his hand when I heard his call, I turned my back and left it all.
I could not stay another day, To laugh, to love, to work, to play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I've found that peace at the end of the day.
If parting has left a void, Then fill it with remembered joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss, Ah, yes, those things too I will miss.
Be not burdened with times of sorrow, I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My life's been full, I've savored much;
Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.
Perhaps my time seemed all too brief;
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your heart and share with me,
God wanted me now, He set me free.

Obituary

*I have fought the good fight, I have finished the race, I have kept the faith.
II Timothy 4:7 NIV*

Emma Jean Martin-Moyer, age 80, of Eden NC passed away June 16th, 2026. Born on November 1st, 1945, in Eden, North Carolina she is preceded in death by her parents Emmastine Martin and Ed Artis, son, Roderick Martin Sr. and sister, Genevieve Broadnax.

Emma lived a life that was rich in love, family, faith, and resilience. Over her 80 years, she witnessed generations grow around her and took great pride in the family she helped build. She was a source of wisdom, strength, and comfort to those who knew her, always offering a listening ear, a warm smile, and a reminder of what truly mattered. Her presence brought people together, and her love created memories that will continue to live on through the many lives she touched.
