OBITUARY

Vickie Dean Brown Adams, was born January 9, 1962 in Rockingham County to Elizabeth Pratt Brown and the late George Roy Brown. Vickie has lived in the county for most of her life. She departed this life on July 3, 2026 at Wesley Long Hospital, Greensboro, NC.

She attended Bethany Schools and graduated from Rockingham County High School in 1980. She worked at Jacobs Creek Nursing Center, Madison, NC for several years where she was employed as a Housekeeper. Listening to music, playing cards, cooking and basketball was some of her pastimes that she enjoyed.

She was married to the late Ronald Adams for 29 years. Vickie was a former member of New Light Refuse Temple of Madison, NC and attended ACTS Church under the leadership of Elder Chris Graves.

She was also preceded in death by her brother; Tony Brown.

She leaves to cherish her memory: her mother; Elizabeth Brown of Madison, NC, brothers; Wayne Brown, Bill Brown (Ella), Ronald Brown (Tonia) and Ricky Brown (Sue); sisters; Peggy Cullins, Janice Bennett (Jonathan), Lutricia Millner (Tyron*), and Shelia Ford (Jeffrey). Stepson; Ron Wall (Amy), Six sisters-in-laws; Julia Finnie (Mac), Darlene Spencer (Jerry), Sandra Adams, Vonda Adams, Patrinia Adams (Mike), Jane Phillips (William) and three brothers-in-law; Eddie Adams (Loretta), Ricky

Adams (Leslie) and Tracy Adams (Melody) along with a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and special friends; Diane B. Brown and Lavern Dejournette.

I'M FREE

Do not let your tears be chains for me—
I have stepped beyond the weight of days,
where the wind moves without walls,
and the sky opens like an endless door.
I have laid down the burden of breath,
and taken up the garment of light;
each step is a feather on the river of time,
each moment a song without end.

Remember me not in the shadow of sorrow,
but in the warmth of a shared smile,
in the hush before dawn when the world holds its breath, in the quiet courage that carries you forward. I am not gone—

I am the hush in the garden at dusk, the shimmer on water, the whisper that says:
you are loved, and I am free.
