COMMITTAL

RECESSIONAL

We love you and miss you so much mom! We will hold things down here. Although I am sad, I know you just want to be with the rest of the family on the other side and you will be watching over us, alongside everyone who went before you. So, I can't be mad or upset that you are gone. Kiss Dad for me!

OBITUARY

Patsy “Pat” Brown Mosley was born to the late William Harrell Brown and Beth Brown on September 5, 1952. She departed this life on July 6, 2026, after years of caring for other family members.

Pat had gone through so many obstacles in her life after the passing of her husband, the late Edward Mosley, Jr. No matter what, she held on to a smile and a smart mouth. She was a devoted child of God. She knew he was with her every step of the way. She worked as a CNA and manager at McDonald's. Pat never met anyone and didn't say hello or give out a hug or a compliment. Even if it was just the color of someone's shoes. She was grateful for every moment she had with her family! She loved her kids, and her grandchildren to the fullest. The moment she had great grandchildren she was over the moon. She would tell each of them "I love you to the moon" and meant every word of that. She was a devoted wife, mother, sister, Nana, GiGi and friend. She would go to extremes to help anyone and everyone. She came in contact with many and definitely left an impact. She will surely & deeply be missed.

Pat was also preceded in death by her sister; Peggy Adams, brothers; Michael "Mike" Brown and William "David" Brown.

She leaves behind; Her daughters; Kristy Clark Schmidt and Cary Elizabeth Brown; “Plus One” son; Jeremy Coleman, Grand-Grandchildren; Christopher Clark, Brooke Allen, Cazzie Bailey, Shayna Brown, Stormi Yow and Jermiah Coleman, great-grandchildrn; Shawn Booth and Zy’aine Cooper. with a host of other family and friends.
