

100 years young
You made it mom.

You didn't think you were going to make it, did you?
But you did.

Your LIGHT does not stop here,
It will continue to SHINE FOREVER.

Your Loving Children
Charlene, Brenda, J.C. and Danny

There are some who bring a light so great to the world that even after they are gone the light remains.

Legacy of Love

A wife, a mother, a grandma too,
This is the legacy we have from you.
You TAUGHT US LOVE and how to fight,
You gave us strength; you gave us might.
A stronger person would be hard to find,
And in your heart, you were ALWAYS KIND.
You fought for us all in one way or another,
Not just as a wife not just a mother.
For all of us you gave your best.
Now the time has come for you to rest.
So, go in peace, you've earned your sleep,
Your love in our hearts we will
ETERNALLY KEEP.

A Glimpse into the Life of Margaret M. Haynes

Margaret Mintz Haynes was born on December 22, 1923, in Shelby, NC to the late Berry and Pearl Doggett Mintz. She was the tenth of eleven children in her family.

While growing up in the Shoal Creek community, she began a courtship with her future husband, (K.C. Haynes) at the tender age of 14. After her father decided that Mr. Haynes was spending too much time with his daughter, he forbade them from seeing each other. Undeterred, the young smitten couple decided to fix that dilemma by getting married on their own. Mrs. Haynes had just turned 15, when she became a young, beautiful bride, at the surprise of her parents. The devoted couple remained married for 66 years until his passing in 2005. From this union came four children: J.C., Brenda, Danny, and Charlene.

Mrs. Haynes believed in learning and improving oneself. She attended Cleveland High School during her youth and finished her formal education at Cleveland Technical College. In addition to being a wonderful homemaker, she was also employed with Fiber Industries for 28 years until her retirement. When she was not working, Mrs. Haynes enjoyed traveling extensively. Her travels included destinations such as Hawaii and even Europe. She had many hobbies. She enjoyed cooking, singing, reading, gardening and as an avid walker. She believed in staying healthy. She also found pleasure in spending time with her special friends from the “Silver Fox Club” as they were so named by Dr. Isaac.

Mrs. Haynes was a lifelong member of Shoal Creek Baptist Church, where she was currently the oldest member of the church. As a dedicated member, she served in many capacities through the years. Some of those included Sunday school teacher, Gospel Choir member, (her special song that she led with the choir was “If God Said It, That Settles It”), Adult Missionary Department member, Kitchen Committee chairperson, Pastor’s Aide member and she was a former Mrs. Senior Shoal Creek, Woman of the Year, and a Trustee Emeritus. Mrs. Haynes had 75 years of dedicated service to her church. She loved the Lord and truly lived a life of faithfulness. Her favorite scripture was Philippians 4:13: “I can do all things through Christ which strengthens me.”

Mrs. Haynes departed this life to live eternally with the Lord on February 5, 2024. She was 100 years young, after having lived a full life. Although she will be greatly missed, she leaves us with beautiful memories of her.

In addition to her parents and her husband, she was also preceded in death by all ten of her siblings, John Turner, T.K. Turner, Jacob Turner, Flossie Turner, Jennie Turner, Pearl Turner, Beulener Smith, Bessie Woods, George Turner, and Pecola Maddox.

She leaves cherished memories and a legacy of love to her children, J.C. Haynes (Delores) of Columbia, SC, Brenda Phillips (Paul) of Shelby, NC, Danny Haynes of Kings Mountain, NC, and Charlene Haynes of Shelby, NC; six grandchildren, Jamie Phillips (Sofia) of Finland, Jeffrey Haynes of Columbia, SC, Katrice Thompson of Raleigh, NC, Candace Phillips of Shelby, NC, Kellie Haynes of Columbia, SC, and Vanessa Woods of Shelby, NC; seven great-grandchildren, Elizabeth Phillips of Indianapolis, IN, Kaitlyn Chapman (Tyler) of Raleigh, NC, Joel Phillips of Las Vegas, NV, Kevin Phillips of Michigan, Candice Petty, Chasidy Petty and DaMarcus Smith all of Shelby, NC; seven great-great grandchildren, Vaniya Petty, Nazalyn Hartgrove, Brayden Maddox, Tylik Briscoe, Azavion Brown, Amarion Brown and Kashdyn Smith; a special great-nephew, Phillip Mitchell of Shelby, NC; her special “Silver Fox” friends, Ruby Woods, Betty Nance, and Hattie Hall; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends.
