

23 PSALM

The Lord is my shepherd,
I shall not want.

He maketh me to lie down
in green pastures:
He leadeth me beside the
still waters.

He restoreth my soul: he leadeth me
in the paths of righteousness
for his name's sake.

Yea, though I walk through the valley
of the shadow of death,
I will fear no evil:
for thou art with me;
thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.

Thou preparest a table before me
in the presence of mine enemies:
thou anointest my head with oil;
my cup runneth over.

Surely goodness and mercy shall
follow me all the days of my life:
and I will dwell in the house
of the Lord forever.

OBITUARY REVEREND ROBERT LEE MOORE

DEC 30, 1951 - DEC 13, 2024

Reverend Robert Lee Moore was a loving husband, father, grandfather, uncle and friend. He was an inspiring teacher and mentor. He was well known in Shelby as “Bread” to his childhood friends. Robert Lee Moore, 72 of Lancaster, California departed his life on December 13, 2024. He was born on December 30, 1951, in Cleveland County, North Carolina.

Robert graduated from Shelby Senior High School and worked for Copeland, Reliance, and Cleveland County Schools in Shelby. He later moved to Lancaster, California, where he continued his career at the local high school district.

Robert began his ministry as a deacon and Sunday school teacher at Ellis Chapel and served in the Ebenezer Association. He later became a member of Palmer Grove Baptist Church. After earning his Associate of Religion/Church Ministry degree from Fruitland Baptist Bible Institute in Hendersonville, NC, he was called to serve as pastor of Green Creek Missionary Baptist Church. Under his leadership, the church saw significant growth in Sunday school and mid-week Bible study attendance. He also mentored others overseas and helped launch the church’s first Summer School program, broke ground on the Life Center, and increased Vacation Bible School participation.

Robert was preceded in death by his father John Moore; mother, Mary Louise Moore; and brother Jimmy “Weebone” Moore.

He leaves to love and cherish his memory his wife of 47 years, Carla “Freda” Moore of Lancaster, California; children, Kenneth (Paula) Hamrick of Gaffney, South Carolina, Maurice Moore of Beverly Hills, California, and Laquisha Goodloe of Palmdale, California. He is also survived by his brothers, Steve Moore, Bishop Michael (Sandra) Moore, Dwight Moore, and Gregory Moore, all of Shelby, North Carolina; sisters, Priscilla (James) Wright of Hickory, North Carolina, Bonita Gail Moore of Shelby, North Carolina, and Mary (Jim) Blanks of Kansas City, Missouri; five grandchildren, an uncle and many other relatives and friends.
