As a man, he was never afraid to express affection by telling people that he loved them. In his spare time, he enjoyed watching westerns, playing checkers and listening to old school R & B.

In addition to his parents, he was preceded in death by his wife of 56 years, Dorothy Robinson; son, Robert Robinson, Jr., Jonathan Maurice Robinson and Henry Antonio Robinson; a grandson, Shawn Chambers; siblings, Diane Caldwell and Alton Robinson.

Together Again

Dad

*If I could write a story
It would be the greatest ever told
Of a kind and loving Dad
Who had a heart of gold
I could write a million pages
But still be unable to say, just how Much I love and miss him
Every single day
I will remember all he taught me
I'm hurt but won't be sad
Because he'll send me down the answers
And he'll always be MY DAD*
