God's Word is unwavering and in it He speaks so clear: "May the God of Hope fill you with all joy and peace..." allowing no room for fear. To speak of Hope in the midst of sorrow can be misunderstood. Because Hope is a feeling of expectation and a desire for something good. We hope to live a long life; full of love and success

For that reason, we will not allow this loss to make us feel hopeless I want to encourage us all today, we must allow ourselves to grieve But remember, Barbara Wilson, her journey's over; she had to leave It brings comfort to say, "She fought a good fight!" But the reality is, she's no longer here; does that seem right? Some of you may have thought as I did and asked God, "Why couldn't I have had more time?!" To hear her tell her life stories, to laugh with her; even cry

We all have experiences of her that others of us may not have gotten to see, But I rejoice in the Hope that God's plan was fulfilled in her life; Yes indeed! God in His infinite wisdom always knows what's best And Granma Barbara, I'm assured she's safe in His arms and at rest.

So we can't stay in a place of mourning too long; she wouldn't want us to You know that's how she left us, right? Cuttin up and Carryin' on, the way we always do!

She whispered a peaceful goodbye, just after a word of prayer
God lifted her out of suffering, and placed her back in Heaven's care
So Live your life in such a way that Hope always carries you through Knowing until your last breath, just as she did, God is present with you
