

I'm Free

Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God laid for me.
I took His hand when I heard Him call
I turned my back and left it all.

I could not stay another day
To laugh, to love, to work or play
Tasks left undone must stay that way.
I found that place at the close of day.

If my passing has left a void
Then fill it with remembered joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss
Ah yes, these things, I too, will miss.

Be not burdened with times of sorrow.
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My life's been full, I savored much
Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.

Perhaps my time seemed all too brief;
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your heart and share with me
God wanted me now, He set me free.

Her Journey

Ms. Beulah Faye Byers Mitchell, 79, born to the late James and Inez Roberts Byers, passed away on Saturday, May 3, 2025 at Atrium Health-Cleveland in Shelby, NC. She was born in Cleveland County, NC, on May 20, 1945.

Ms. Mitchell was a member of Green Bethel Baptist Church. She remained a faithful member until her health declined; having served even in declining health as a member of the Missionary Ministry and a Vacation Bible School teacher. She enjoyed sewing, cooking, reading, and doing crossword puzzles.

After retiring from Cone Mills, Hanes Plant in Caroleen, NC, she was employed with Lil Busy Bees Day Care until it closed. She loved helping and working with the children there. Mrs. Mitchell was such a loving and compassionate person, especially towards her family, and she had a special love for her sisters.

She was preceded in death by her parents; husband, Bobby Dean Mitchell; siblings, Eula Mae Mitchell, Alma Sarratt, Annie Hardin, John Byers, J.C. Byers, Bruce Byers, Joe Byers, Billy Gene Byers, and Charles Byers; and a niece reared in the home, Vivian Jamerson.

She leaves precious memories to her children, George Mitchell (Ann) of Mooresboro, NC and Billie Mitchell of Boiling Springs, NC; grandchildren, Dustin Mitchell, Latoya Anderson (Keith); five great grandchildren; one great great grandchild; sisters in law, Elizabeth Mitchell and Edna Mae Mitchell; brother in law, James Sarratt; special friend, Ann Hickman; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends.
