The Life That Counts

The Life That Counts is a continuous daily walk of love,
We give thanks for all our blessings from above,
We tell a sinful world that Jesus died for our sins,
If we die to sin in this world, we will live again,

The Life That Counts is to dedicate on his words,
To send up praises and sing like the beautiful birds
Lift our hands and bless Him each and every day,
Count our blessings when we kneel to pray

The Life That Counts determines if we have a joyful life,
Though we have tribulations, troubles, and strife,
Remember wherever you go he will hold your hand,
Against Stan and his principals we are able to stand.

The Life That Counts is when you have trouble you can smile,
Because weeping is for a night and joy comes after while,
There is the sword of the spirit and the helmet of Salvation,
Use the shield of faith to quench the fiery darts of temptation.

The Life That Counts is to know that one day we will live again,
To be able to sing and dance and shout with the heavenly beings,
You can shout your troubles over for there is no more crying,
No more poverty, disasters, hardships and no more dying.

Life Reflections

Mrs. Cathleen Roseboro Smith, 83, passed away on Wednesday, June 18, 2025. She was born on May 25, 1942, in Cleveland County, NC, to the late King Roseboro and the late Ellen Kennedy Roseboro.

Cathleen was a member of First Baptist Church of Earl where she sang on the choir and served as a Deaconess until her health declined. She loved to cook and the family loved her cooking. Cathleen worked in the textile industry for many years until she retired. What Cathleen loved most was being around her family, especially her grand children and her great grandchildren.

Cathleen was preceded in death by her father, King Roseboro and mother, Ellen Roseboro; sister, Beatrice Hamilton; brother, Charles Roseboro; and great-grand daughter, Jayona Smith.
