A Fallen Limb

A limb has fallen from the family tree.
I hear a voice that whispers, “Grieve not for me.”
Remember the best times, the laughter, the song.
The good I lived while I was strong.
Continue my heritage, I’m counting on you.
Keep on smiling, the sun will shine through.
My mind is at ease, my soul is at rest.
Remembering all, how I was truly blessed.
Continue traditions, no matter how small.
Go on with your life, don’t worry about falls.
I miss you dearly, so keep up your chin.
Until that day comes, we’re together again.”

Cynthia K. Allison

Miss Cynthia K. Allison, affectionately known as “Cynt”, 61, was born June 15, 1964, in Cleveland County, North Carolina, to the late Floyd and Thelma Allison. She departed this life on Thursday, September 4, 2025 at Atrium Health Cleveland.

At an early age, Cynthia was a member of Hopewell Baptist Church and as an adult she became a faithful member of Walls Memorial Baptist Church. Cynthia worked as a custodian at Cleveland Community College for many years.

Her love for Mickey Mouse was unconditional. She dedicated a whole building to him and his Disney friends. Cynthia’s favorite pastime was working in her flower beds. She would work there for hours at a time. Her beautiful yard stood out from the rest with so many wonderful flowers.

In addition to her parents, Cynthia was preceded in death by her grandmother, Fannie Smith; two sisters, Floria Allison and Dianne Littlejohn; and special cousin, Kent Littlejohn.

She leaves to cherish her memories two sons, Chadwick O.(Leandra) Allison of Shelby, NC, and Bradley O. Allison of Charlotte, NC; spoiled dog, Jiggy, of the home; three brothers; Calvin “Bucky” Littlejohn, Harold (Sally) Allison, and Lester Allison, all of Shelby, NC; six honorary sisters; Regina Miller, Mary Jefferies, Sharon Clark, Dorothy Woods, Karen Glover and Annette Burris; uncle, Kenneth Littlejohn; aunt, Annie Mae Littlejohn; and a host of nieces, nephews, Crest High School Class of 1983, and friends.
