

Forever in Our Hearts

Your life was a blessing,
Your memory a treasure,
Loved beyond words,
And missed beyond measure.

Taken too soon,
Without a goodbye,
We hold you close
In heart and in mind.

A son so cherished,
A brother so true,
An uncle whose laughter
Lit every room.

Though we grieve your absence,
Your spirit remains,
In the stories we tell,
And the love that sustains.

Forever remembered,
Forever loved,
Watching over us now
From Heaven above.

REMEMBERING Jorden

Matthew “Jorden” McCormick, 27, of Shelby, NC, departed from life unexpectedly on Friday, September 12, 2025, in Clover, SC. Jorden was born in Cleveland County, NC. He was the son of Crystal McCormick (Edward), Rocklin “Bud” Haskin and Andre Sloan.

Jorden was a 2016 graduate of Crest Senior High School. He attended Western Carolina University and was a server at Texas Roadhouse. His dream was to become a barber.

For all who knew Jorden, he was so full of life. He was the life of the party; having the most boisterous, contagious laugh. He never met a stranger and had the purest heart with nothing but the best intentions. His beautiful smile lit up any room that he entered. His support to his friends and family was never-ending because you knew he was just a phone call away. There will now be an emptiness that no one can fill.

He was preceded in death by and now waiting in Heaven for him are mother, Nancy “NaNa” Haskin; grandparents, Patrick McCormick, Johnny and Jean Haskin, Nancy Sloan and brother, Roger McClain, Jr.

He leaves behind to cherish his memory; his parents, Crystal McCormick (Edward), Rocklin “Bud” Haskin and Andre Sloan; sisters, Margo Davidson, Amber Mitchell, Chasitey Sloan, Ceona Archie and Hannah Six; brothers, Benjy Benton (Michelle), Michael Hensley and Justin McClain; grandmother, Kathy Sloan; aunt, Sarah Dulude (Jeff); uncles, Jamie Roshia, Travis Sloan and Darin Hoyle; nieces, Ava Davidson, Gemma Davidson and Laylah Benton; nephews, Caleb Petri, Malachi Addison, Derek Mitchell, Halen Davidson, and Lincoln Mitchell; and an extreme number of friends and family whom cannot be listed because he was loved by so many.
