

To My Mom

The love you have shown me through the years is something I cannot explain.
But your love is a feeling that will always remain In my heart.
You gave me a shoulder to cry on through good times and bad times.
Your wisdom will always guide me through every step of my life.
There will never be a mom like you and I thank you.
You gave me strength when I was weak and gave me confidence when I felt like I couldn't speak.
No matter how old I get I will always be your little one.
And our bond will never be undone.

I'll love you always Mom.

By your Son, Saquondrell S. Moses

Ms. Oveta Ann Huntley Moses, 70, of Shelby, NC, passed away on September 29, 2025, at Amorem Hospice, Valdese, NC. She was the daughter of the late Frank and Annie Liles Huntley. She was born on May 29, 1955 in Mecklenburg County, NC.

Oveta was a graduate of Crest High School and a Jehovah Witness. She loved God and was heavy in Jehovah Witness.

She was a straight forward person who spoke her mind. Oveta was also soft spoken when she delivered her words, to make you feel loved. She was a people person who made friends easily because of her kind heartedness toward others, which created a love for her by all who encountered her. If she could help someone in need, she would. She was always looking out for the other person. She would give you her last and not ask anything in return.

She enjoyed nature—gardening with flowers and walking around her neighborhood. Another of her hobbies was listening to jazz music.

In addition to her parents, she was preceded in death by her husband, James B. Moses and grandson, Cory A. Moses.

She is survived by her son Saguondrell S. Moses (Tonya); sister, Velma K. Strong (Rick); brothers, William Huntley (Cheryl), Eric L. Huntley (Shelia), Warren A. Huntley (Tommy), Fredrick Huntley (Lynn), and Marcus D. Huntley (Jennifer); and grandchild, Sariya Moses; special friend, Delores Wren; and a host of nieces, nephews, other family and friends.
